

LEADER OF THE YEAR

MATT PRESCOTT

Matt Prescott was born in Dallas to his parents, Myra and Stuart, and has a younger sister named Amy. Not only did he grow up in Dallas, but he grew up going to camps, roaming the halls, and working weekends and summers at the Jewish Community Center.

Matt is also a proud JCC Preschool graduate. He has been involved in multiple organizations, including Greenhill School, Dallas Jewish Historical Society, The Jewish Federation of Greater Dallas and, of course, the JCC. Matt currently serves on several committees on the Board including Camp, Building & Grounds, Governance and the new Strategic Planning Committee.

He lives in the local neighborhood and is committed to supporting the JCC's success. Matt specializes in Employee Health & Benefits at Marsh & McLennan Agency where he is Vice President.
